U.S. Suggestion on India's Prithvi Missile Programme

214. MISS SAROJ KHAPARDE: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that USA has criticized India's Prithvi missile programme and has asked to abandon it forthwith; and

(b) if so, the details thereof and the reaction of Government over the US suggestion?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI PRANAB MUKHERJEE): (a) and (b) Following the test firing of Prithivi on 27 January, 1996, the US State Department Spojkesman reiterated the US view that "the deployment or acquisition of ballistic missiles by India or Pakistan would be destablizing and that deployment of ballistic missiles would undermine the security of both India and Pakistan". He stated the US position that "the deployment of ballistic missiles, the test firing of ballistsic missiles, the acquisition of this kind of technology, is not a good idea". He added that the US urges both India and Pakistan to "forego any kind of ballistic missiles development programme"

Government have stated that there is no question of abandoning the Prithvi programme. Government remain committed to a policy of determining the course of India's missile programme on the basis of India's national security requirements.
